How to Discern Your Calling

1. Realize you are called to _____ first.
 - a. Before being called to a task, you are called to a person. Before being called to a to-do checklist, you are called to a relationship.
 - b. Matthew 18:28-30 “Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you. Let me teach you, because I am humble and gentle at heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy to bear, and the burden I give you is light.”
 - c. John 10:27 My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me.
 - d. Are you carrying yokes that are not from Jesus? How is your personal connection to Jesus going in this season of your life?

2. You are called to the _____ .
 - a. About ____% of your calling is laid out in the bible.
 - b. Verses speaking about God’s will for you: Mark 12:30-31; 1 Cor 10:31; Ephesians 4:29-32; Colossians 1:10; Micah 6:8; Romans 12:1-2; Proverbs 3:5; Colossians 3:12-17; Matthew 6:33; Hebrews 13:5; Ephesians 4:32.
 - c. After reading the verses above (or others you are familiar with) what parts of God’s will are you not following? How can you change that in your life?

3. Be _____ now

- a. Rather than the where, when, how, who of tomorrow, Jesus wants you to be faithful where you are now.
- b. Luke 16:10 “If you are faithful in little things, you will be faithful in large ones.”
- c. In what areas are you being faithful? In what areas do you need to become faithful?

4. Be in _____

- a. How does God use community to help Barnabas and Saul discover God’s call for them in Acts 13?
- b. How should community help motivate you like Hebrews 10:24-25 talks about?
- c. What is one thing your microchurch can do to help you discover God’s call? What is one thing you can do to help someone else in your microchurch discover their call?
